President Roosevelt says he is "half Northern and half Southern." It is natural to infer that he sits down on his Southern half.

An exchange states that there is to be a fight to the finish between Bryan and the Eastern Democrats. The South may be the umpire and also the innocent bystander.

The esteemed contemporaries who are attempting to out-wind the beloved Norfolk Landmark in that discussion about angels, have got a Port Arthur job on hand all right.

The last session of the 58th Congress will assemble on Monday, December 5th. The G. O. P. elephant will then begin the performance of stunts that will show which way the wind blows.

Roosevelt's plurality in Missouri was 25,600. The vote was as follows: Roosevelt, 321,447; Parker, 295,847; Debs (Socialist), 13,008; Swallow (Prohibition), 7,181; Watson (People's party), 4,226; Corrigan (Socialist Labor), 1875.

The latest from St. Louis is that young Stephen Putney, the son of the Richmond millionaire, was kidnapped and is being held for a reward. A dispatch from Richmond says "a pretty woman had been seen to speak to him just before he disappeared," and then follows "the theory that he had been lured away." So the trap was set with beauty. Same old peril. We hope it is "well with the boy."

The Selma News is a new weekly newspaper that comes to THE STAR office. The first issue came out on Thanksgiving Day and its future success will be good reason for the town of Selma to be thankful. Mr. William J. Caines, an experienced newspaper man, is editor and manager of the newspaper, and we hope the town will fully appreciate his efforts to give them a good paper.

We regret that the daily edition of the Concord Tribune is to be discontinued after the 1st of December. Brother Hurley has been giving his little city a neat and excellent paper in a very circumscribed field, but the support for the paper has not equalled the expense and toil that a daily newspaper exacts. The Semi-Weekly Tribune will be published, and we have no doubt that it will succeed, as it well deserves to do.

Now comes an archæologist to say that in his day Noah was a multi-millionaire and a captain of industry as well. He certainly seems to have been the originator of the ship subsidy scheme, and what's more he floated just about as much stock as he could water, even with the Deluge on.—Charleston News and Courier. He also may be said to be the originator of the Meat Trust, as he certainly made the first shipment of Ham on record.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot. We are sure Noah was a trust magnate, because he took care of the elephant to the very last.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Eight smallpox contacts who have been quarantined at 518 MacRae street were released by the Health Department yesterday.

— Building permit has been granted to Mr. W. L. Parsley for the erection of two one-story, frame dwellings on Fifth, between Nixon and Taylor streets.

— James Ramsey, Jr., the one-month-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ramsey, 215 Wooster street, died yesterday morning. The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence.

— While on her way to Southport Thanksgiving afternoon the steamer Sea Gate struck a floating log and broke one of her propellers. She was hauled out on the railway yesterday and will come off to-day.

— By deed of November 4th, 1890, filed for record yesterday, Roger Moore and wife transferred to Annie W. Newbery, for $330, property on north side of Dock, 69 feet east of Twelfth street, 33 x40 feet in size.

— The Carolina Copper Works has revised and renewed its application for a building permit to erect a two-story office and shop on the old Fowler property, on Front, between Orange and Ann streets. Mr. Thad. F. Tyler is the contractor.

— Louis H. Watkins, 17 years old, died Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home, No. 1607 North Tenth street, after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever. The remains were laid to rest yesterday at Acorn Branch 4½ miles from the city.

— The Park Commission of the city again failed of a quorum Thursday night and the meeting was postponed until this evening when a joint conference will be held with the special committee appointed to secure certain legislation at the next General Assembly.

— Mr. Percy Smith, while engaged in doing some tinning at the Cape Fear Lumber Mill Thanksgiving morning, fell from the roof of a shed to a carriage track below, sustaining several bruises which will incapacitate him for several days.

— At the morning service at the First Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock to-morrow the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. There will be service at 3:30 o'clock especially for the children. Sunday School at 4 o'clock. Preaching at 8 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Wells. All are cordially invited to these services.

— Diphtheria quarantines were established yesterday as follows: Esther M. Britt, 8 years old, No. 2 Wooster street; Harry Eberl, 6 years old, No. 515 South Sixth street. The quarantine at the residence of Mr. Henry Ottoway, 517 South Third street was lifted yesterday, his little daughter, Sarah, 6 years old, having recovered.

— A freight train on the W. C. & A. Railroad Thanksgiving night ran over and killed a fine buck near Lake Waccamaw. The deer had probably been frightened away from its native haunts by hunters on Thanksgiving Day and attempted to run along the track ahead of the engine when overtaken and killed.

— Official notice is given elsewhere in to-day's STAR for members of Jeff. Davis and George Washington councils, Jr. O. U. A. M. to assemble in Jeff. Davis council room to-morrow evening at 6:45 o'clock for the purpose of attending in a body the Jr. O. U. A. M. Thanksgiving service in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be by the pastor, the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D.

WEDDING THANKSGIVING DAY.

Miss Katherine E. Sholar the Bride of Mr. Langford, of Baltimore.

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives at the home of Mr. B. F. King, No. 509 South Front street, Miss Katherine E. Sholar, an attractive young lady of this city, and Mr. John Langford, of Baltimore, were married Thanksgiving afternoon at 5 o'clock, according to the beautiful service of the Methodist church, the Rev. A. McCullen officiating. The parlors of the home were very tastefully decorated for the occasion and following the ceremony a reception was given during which Mr. and Mrs. Langford received the happiest congratulations of very many friends. Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sholar, of Columbia, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Langford will make their home for the present at Macon, Ga., where the groom is engaged for the Westinghouse Electrical Co.

Rev. J. A. Scherer To-morrow.

The young men of the city are fortunate in having an opportunity to-morrow of hearing the Rev. J. A. B. Scherer, the distinguished president of Newberry College, who will be the speaker at the 5 o'clock men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Mr. Scherer is pleasantly remembered from last season and those who heard him then will hear him again with great pleasure now. He is an attractive speaker and a consecrated divine. Hollowbush's Orchestra will play for the service.

MANY WERE CALLED.

Over Zealous Observers of Thanksgiving Meted Punishment by Mayor.

NINETEEN, THEY NUMBERED.

Seven Disturbers of the Peace Arrested in One House—Fines and Costs Aggregated Over $135, While Others Went to Roads.

The Mayor had a "full house" upon his first appearance in the police court after Thanksgiving yesterday. Nineteen penitents lined the prisoner's dock and the sum total of penalties imposed consisted of fines and costs aggregating $135, six straight sentences of 30 days each and one commitment to jail for the Superior Court in default of $50 bond.

The most notable array of offenders were seven in a bunch arrested by Policemen H. P. Merritt, C. E. Wood and J. J. Moore in a negro house on Second, between Dock and Orange streets. Mr. Spencer LeGrand and other white residents in the neighborhood made complaint of disorder in the house about 11 o'clock Thanksgiving night and Officer Merritt was detailed to go down and see what was "doing." He had to wait awhile, but very soon the house was in an uproar with midnight revelry again. Officers Moore and Wood were summoned and the three made a wholesale raid of the premises, only one of the occupants escaping. The Mayor "touched up" the bunch yesterday after this fashion: Alex. Canady, $10 and costs; Ed McDonald, $5 and costs; Richard Davis, 30 days; Norah Council, $10 and costs; Minnie Pridgen, $5 and costs; Lillie Evans, 30 days; Nellie Edwards, 30 days.

Next in importance on the docket were the cases of Lugenia Bakus and Anthony Harrison. Lugenia was making Kellog's alley hideous with her vile language early Thanksgiving night and Policeman J. R. Minshew went in to arrest her. She fought like a hyena, tore the officer's coat and alarmed the neighborhood for blocks around. A large crowd of negroes congregated and acted ugly. Mr. David Holt, who had started down to see if he could be of assistance to the officer, was struck on the shin by a sharp stone hurled at the officer by Harrison. Mr. Holt kept his eye on the negro until assistance came, and then he had Harrison arrested. The negro had ambitions to be a bully and said boastingly that he was "a son of a gun from South Carolina," or words to worse effect. The boast was repeated to the Mayor in court yesterday, with the result that the negro got 30 days on the roads in default of $20 and costs. The woman was given 60 days on two counts of drunkenness and disorder.

Louis Yates went to jail in default of $50 bond for appearance in the Superior Court to answer a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon. The evidence was that Yates was ejected from the house of one Mrs. Alleyes on Thanksgiving night and that he later returned and threw brick bats through the window, one of them striking the woman in the mouth and another breaking a pitcher to a china set.

Louis Clinton and Lizzie Loftin, disorderly conduct near Tenth and Market street, fined $10 and costs each.

Jos. Holley, colored, drunk and disorderly, and Hosea Davis, drunk and down, were fined $5 and costs each.

Lillie Blount and Walter Guion, both colored, an affray, fined $20 and costs each. Mary Bailey and Lucy Green, both colored, drunk and disorderly, were each left off with $5 and costs.

LOCAL MARKETS AND SHIPPING.

Receipts of Cotton and Naval Stores. Arrival and Departure of Vessels.

Schooner "Benj. C. Frith", Capt. Keene, arrived yesterday from Boston for cargo of ties from the B. F. Keith Co. Schooner Chas. A. Witler, Capt. Brownwell, cleared for New York with cargo of lumber from the Hilton Lumber Co.

Cotton receipts yesterday were 4,474 bales against 3,188 same day last year. The receipts for the week were 20,755 bales against 13,913 same week last season. Since September 1st, 227,102 bales against 234,076 during a corresponding period in 1903. The local market yesterday was steady at 9c. New York spot, quiet at 9.70 for middling.

The spirits turpentine market is showing a marked depression, yesterday's quotation having been firm at 48½c. The other items of the naval store market remain firm. Tar advanced yesterday to $1.70 per barrel. Receipts of spirits the past week were 421 casks against 201 same week last year; rosin 2,757 barrels against 1,084, same period last season. Tar was only 396 barrels against 848 and crude 393 against 624 barrels same week last year.

Negro Shot at Cronly.

Charles Bailey, 19 years old, an employe of the Acme Mfg. Co. at Cronly, was accidentally shot Thursday morning about 11 o'clock near his home and was brought to the hospital here for treatment on the afternoon train. He is dangerously but not necessarily fatally wounded. An entire load of shot took effect just under his left arm, grazing the outer wall of the cavity, but not entering. The shot was evidently fired at close range as the wadding, bits of clothing, etc., were blown into the wound. The negro could give no connected story of the shooting.

HON. T. E. BURTON COMING.

Distinguished Chairman of Congressional River and Harbor Committee Here Next Week--Commerce Chamber.

Hon. T. E. Burton, of Columbus, Ohio, chairman of the Congressional Committee on Rivers and Harbors, has consented to visit North Carolina on Dec. 1st, 2nd and 3rd as the guest of Hon. Jno. H. Small, of Washington, N. C., and by invitation of Hon. G. B. Patterson, of this district, the distinguished member of Congress will pay a visit to this port for the purpose of acquainting himself personally with the needs of the river and harbor here. Much importance attaches to the visit of Mr. Burton here at this time as the impressions gained by him during his visit to the city will largely influence the action of the committee in the forthcoming Congress when the appropriation for the government improvement of rivers and harbors is made up.

It is to hoped that every business man in the city and especially those interested in the river and harbor improvement here will be present at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce called for 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of arranging for the entertainment of Mr. Burton while here. The exact date of his coming is not yet known but it will be ascertained in a few days, possibly before the meeting this morning, and it is hoped that every one interested in the welfare of the city will be present to co-operate in giving the distinguished member from Ohio a most cordial welcome.

HIS DAY'S WORK DONE.

W. W. Rivenbark, Aged Confederate Veteran, Found Dead Near Power House.

Mr. W. W. Rivenbark, an aged Confederate veteran, who lives with a family of sons and daughters at Ninth and Dawson streets, was found dead under the edge of some cars, standing on the side track at the C. R., L. & P. Co.'s power house, in the southern part of the city, early Thanksgiving night. Death was the result of heart failure. Mr. Rivenbark had been dead only a short time when the body was found by some one employed at the power house. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, viewed the remains and pronounced that death resulted from natural causes. Owing to the serious illness of a daughter of Mr. Rivenbark at the family home, the body was taken to the undertaking rooms of Mr. W. W. King and prepared for burial, the funeral having been conducted yesterday afternoon, with interment in Bellevue.

Mr. Rivenbark was employed as a laborer about the power house and had started home from his day's work. He stopped at the car under which he was found to gather up some shattered corn from the empty car, and it was while he was thus engaged that he was stricken down. His coat, dinner pail and walking stick were found in the door of the car just above where he fell. Mr. Rivenbark was about 75 years of age, and the funeral arrangements were looked after by Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans.

BOOKED CARNIVAL SHOWS.

Attractions for Naval Reserves Jubilee, Beginning Next Monday Night.

Mr. S. K. DeVaney returned yesterday from Sumter, S. C., where he went to look over and book attractions from the Fall Fair and Festival now going on there for the Naval Reserves Carnival, which will open in this city at 7 o'clock Monday night. Mr. DeVaney secured not only the eleven shows of the American Carnival Company, but also several independent attractions and a large line of privilege people.

The shows are as follows: Hulbert's Wild West Show, Statue Turning to Life, Great Grain Robbery, Great Bank Robbery, Glass Blowers, City of Jerusalem, Guages' Vaudeville Show, O'Say! Five Legged Cow. Aztec Sisters, Merry-go-round and Ferris Wheel. The shows will arrive Sunday and the "Carnival City" will begin building at Third and Castle Streets on Monday morning, so that everything will be in readiness for the grand opening at 7 o'clock.

WILMINGTON PASTOR TRANSFERRED.

Rev. A. B. Halton Transferred to Tennessee Conference from Wilmington.

Rev. A. B. Halton, pastor of Market Street M. E. Church, of this city, has been transferred by Bishop W. A. Candler to the Memphis (Tenn.) Conference, and has been assigned by Bishop Key to the pastorate of the Henderson, Tenn., church. Rev. Mr. Halton and family will leave next Tuesday for their new home. They have lived in Wilmington during the past year, and have many friends here who will learn of their departure with regret. Rev. Mr. Halton is a man of power and energy in the church and a speaker of rare talents. Henderson, Tenn., is a town of 3,000 inhabitants and Rev. Mr. Halton's field of usefulness will be greatly enlarged there. The North Carolina Conference at Henderson next week will send another pastor to the church here.

They're the talk of the town. Our fine, custom made suits for Fall and Winter. They cost just a trifle more than the "hand-me-downs" but the difference is in the cut, the fit, the style, the workmanship. Drop in and look over our thousand samples of fashionable fabrics. LOST TO VIRGINIANS.

Wilmington Party Which Attended Great Football Game Returned Yesterday.

IN RICHMOND THANKSGIVING.

Largest Gathering Ever Seen Upon Similar Occasion, With Tar Heels in Majority—Irony of Fate Did Work for White and Blue.

Hoarse and many of them scarcely able to speak above a whisper, crestfallen under the lash of defeat and with numerous "hard luck" stories to relate, the large party of Wilmingtonians who attended the Virginia-Carolina football game at Richmond Thanksgiving afternoon, returned yesterday morning and last night. It was a great game, according to every one who witnessed the titanic struggle of muscle and brawn. The score was 12 to 11 in favor of Virginia, and those figures do really indicate the worst sort of luck for the Carolinians. The difference was just this: Virginia made two touchdowns and kicked both goals. Carolina made two touch downs and missed one goal. Thereby hangs the tale.

According to the Richmond papers the crowd was the largest ever seen at a football game in that city, if anything the Carolina rooters being in the ascendancy. Among those in the Wilmington party not previously mentioned were: Messrs. Tom Wright, Tom Davis, Jas. F. Post, Jr., T. M. Henderson, W. P. Boger, J. W. Perrin, C. McD. Davis, Allan Emerson, Archie Bullock, Shepard Pender, C. L. Myers, Ernest Peschau, W. L. Smith, Jr., Willie Peck, Tom Gause, James Gause, Will Gore, Milton Gore, J. E. Porter, Gordon Cooper, "Billy" Molina, Edwin Bunting, R. L. Farmer, Bob Montgomery, Fred Russ, Walter Blackman, J. A. Fountain, James Lodor, Sam Royall, A. J. Mitchell, B. S. Meeks, S. E. Decker, Ed Bailey, Earle Webb, Clarence LeGrand, Eugene LeGrand, "Skeeter" Burruss, J. H. Bostick, Herman Davis, Bob Houston, A. Christofferson, Norwood Orrell, John D. Myers, W. J. Joyner, Herbert Kendall, Claude Lewis, Jim Rankin, Hardy LeGwin, Charlie Yopp, Clarence French, Lewis Hall and Osborne Foard.

The story of the game is told by Associated Press as follows:

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—The University of Virginia defeated the University of North Carolina in their annual game for the Southern championship at Broad Street Park this afternoon by a margin of but one point. The score was 12 to 11, the Carolinians failing of a drawn battle by their inability to land a rather easy goal.

It was the irony of fate that the point that won the game for the Orange and Blue was the result of an accident in which a Carolinian player figured. With the score 11 to 11, Virginia had a try for goal. The ball was booted straight enough, but too low to get over the bar, and Weaver, a Carolina player, standing beneath the posts, jumped into the air and struck the ball, deflecting it upward and over the bar.

The two teams were as evenly matched as it was possible for them to be, and the offence of each was superior to its defence.

Virginia played Yale football, straight line plunges and mass plays being used effectively against the Carolina line, until the Blue and White were hammered back over their own line. Carolina played Princeton style, depending on end runs chiefly for gains. The Carolinians had a star back field, and one of the heaviest ever seen in this city.

Carpenter, an old V. P. L. player, was the star of the game and Carolina's main dependence as a ground gainer. It was he who made all of the Carolinians' best runs and their second touchdown after a thirty yard dash. The first touchdown of the game, made by Carolina, was due to a Virginia muff of a punt on its goal line, the ball rolling over and a Carolinian falling on it.

For Virginia, right tackle, Council, made the first touchdown, after the ball had been rushed almost the length of the field. Hammond Johnson carried the ball over for the second, in a brilliant fifteen yard dash into the line. Bold yielded goals.

ACADEMY MATINEE AND NIGHT.

Pickerts End Engagement Here With Two Performances To-day--Sale of Seats.

The Four Pickerts Company will close it engagement at the Academy of Music with matinee and night performances to-day, the bill for the matinee being "M'Liss" and for the evening engagement "A Police Alarm." The sale of tickets for both performances and seats for the latter is now on at Plummer's. Matinee prices are 10 and 20 cents; night performance, 10, 20 and 30 cents. Specialties are changed for each performance.

Thanksgiving afternoon "Little Lord Fauntleroy" was given a first class production to the largest audience ever assembled in the house. At night "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was given and last night "Charley's Aunt." The matinee and evening bills to-day are said to be the best in the company's repertoire.

The Wilmington Symphony Orchestra has been reorganized under the management and leadership of the able violinist, Prof. C. C. Brannon, who will drill this organization to the eminent satisfaction of all who may give their work into its hands. Balls, parties, receptions, and wherever good music will be needed instrusted to me will be guaranteed satisfactory or not a cent will be paid for the Orchestra's services. Address Prof. C. C. Brannon, 119 Chestnut street.

DELIGHTFUL THANKSGIVING AFFAIR.

Friends Enjoyed Proverbial Dinner of Turkey and Dressing Thursday.

According to their custom of gathering each Thanksgiving, either in or out of the city and enjoying together with zest and good fellowship the proverbial dinner of that day, a score or more of ladies and gentlemen assembled in Mission Hall, Luther Memorial Building, on Thursday afternoon and most pleasantly celebrated the day of feasting and reunion. The hall was most suitable for the dining and decorations of an appropriate and pleasing nature contributed to the completeness of the affair.

Miss Sadie Kramer, of Baltimore, being the visiting young lady of the group, was accorded the distinction of the guest of honor, she having responded most gracefully in a neat little toast, acknowledging the compliment. Miss Kramer is the attractive guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Theodore Runge while in the city. The gaiety lasted until near dark and as was quaintly expressed by Old "Aunt" Harriet, an ante-bellum colored woman who assisted in serving the party, "I'se never seen de white folks enjoy th'selves so good since slavery times." It was indeed, a most charming affair.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 26.

WAIT AND WATCH.

The announcement is made from Washington that President Roosevelt has no "Southern policy" to change. He believes that his former administration has been fair to the South and will go right along doing what he wants to do. That has been THE STAR'S opinion all along, so we prepard to expect nothing from President than what we have been getting.

President Roosevelt thinks he is right; the South knows that he isn't, and there the matter stands. Therefore, early in the game THE STAR declared that the South would ask no favors from Mr. Roosevelt and would expect none. The President, however, may fool us by tacking some but it will come to us in the nature of a surprise if he does. Our Southern cities, therefore, had better wait before they run over each other with invitations for the President to visit them. No visit from him will change his political treatment of the South and certainly won't cut any ice from an industrial and commercial standpoint. No crawling stunt on the part of the South is going to get anything politically or industrially from the President, and while the South can treat him with every particle of respect due him, we can see no use "to crook the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning." We have all along been of the opinion that the South has nothing to loose by standing on its dignity and awaiting President Roosevelt's attitude towards our portion of the Republic.

This from the Washington Post show that independent paper coincides with President Roosevelt's course and no doubt is an exact statement of his position:

"We do not follow certain esteemed contemporaries in their discussion of what they call Mr. Roosevelt's Southern policy. It does not seem to us, indeed, that he has so far announced, nor do we believe that he has even formulated any policy for the South as distinguished from the rest of the country. During the past two or three years he has experienced a series of impulses and, with characteristic enthusiasm, has given them both expression and demonstration, but he has always insisted that he entertains no principles and contemplates no course of action looking to any particular section or applicable only to special classes and conditions. In this, moreover, we think that he is entirely sincere.

"It is hardly necessary to say, of course, that the Post has regretted some of Mr. Roosevelt's acts. The appointment of Dr. Crum as collector of the port of Charleston, for example, was in our opinion, most unfortunate. We agree with him when he says that the door of hope should not be closed upon the negro. As a matter of fact the door of hope cannot be opened or kept open too wide. The greater and the more assured the rewards for useful achievement, the better for us all. It is one thing, however, to say that every one shall have access to the avenue of opportunity, with protection in the enjoyment of his triumphs, and a very different thing to say that some particular colored man shall have some particular office, merely because he demands it in recognition of his success in private life. The truth is that Dr. Crum's appointment would have been infelicitous quite apart from any consideration of his race and color, for he had had no commercial training or experience whatsoever. Had Mr. Roosevelt chosen for the Charleston collectorship the most eminent white dentist or physician in the whole South, the selection would still have furnished abundant cause for amazement. We go further and propose that had the President appointed to that place the leading lawyer, artist, litterateur or clergyman of South Carolina, the merchants of Charleston would have been justified in complaining. Mr. Roosevelt was perfectly right in his general postulate, but we think the Southern people are equally correct in denying that the appointment of Dr. Crum constituted a logical or legitimate demonstration.

"All this, however, is wide of the present question. What we wish to say is that, in our opinion, Mr. Roosevelt is not conscious of a "Southern policy" any more than of a Northern or a Western policy. It is conceivable that during his incumbency as Mr. McKinley's successor and executor he may have felt under obligations to carry out what he regarded as Mr. McKinley's policy, and it is easy to believe that in this endeavor he may have failed to satisfy everybody. But Mr. Roosevelt's policies are his own from this day forth. He is the choice of the whole people, not of any party; he has received the votes of Democrats as well as Republicans; he is to be President not because of political platforms and party organizations, but by reason of the whole people's admiration of his personality and their faith in his virtue and integrity of purpose. It is our profound conviction, therefore, that he has no plans which refer to one section more than to another, and that his surpise and sorrow over the South's apparent hostility—as revealed to Colonel Mosby and Mr. Craik—are absolutely genuine.

"We look for no change in his convictions of right and wrong, for none in his standards of patriotism, courage and manhood. But the matter for the next four years is between the people and his unfettered inclinations, and we shall be surprised if Southerners do not find in him as much to admire as do the best men in every other quarter of the land."

THE SALISBURY SUN.

Our esteemed contemporary the Salisbury SUN makes this announcement:

"Messrs. Rouecbe and Brown, owners and proprietors of the Salisbury Daily and Weekly SUN, have sold the good will of these papers to Messrs. H. B. Varner and Carl Hammer, proprietors of the Weekly Globe. The sale has been effected but the actual transfer will not take place before the middle of December. By this consolidation Salisbury will have only one instead of two daily papers, as contemplated, and Messrs. Varner and Hammer hope to make their papers, which will be known as the Daily SUN and Weekly Globe, among the best in the State. Mr. Hammer will be general manager, W. Thomas Bost, at present editor of the Globe, city editor, and John M. Julian, now editor of the SUN, editor of the papers. The company has already received a new outfit, and will operate linotype machines. Handsome offices will be fitted up in the Johnson block next to the postoffice. Mr. Rouecbe, one of the retiring proprietors of the SUN, will devote his attention to other business interests. Mr. Brown has not yet decided upon his future plans.

Messrs. Varner and Hammer several months ago invaded the newspaper field at Salisbury and have been publishing there the Weekly Globe. They made it typographically and as to editorial and news matter a model weekly newspaper, but aspired to convert it into a daily. With that end in view a joint-stock company with $15,000 was organized and chartered. That meant the division of a small field between two dailies, a situation which the newspaper men and Salisbury itself would have found ill advised if not detrimental to all sides. However the wise course has been adopted and the Sun is to get the benefit of the ampler equipment and capital of the new concern.

The Sun has been a favorite in this shop and we have often marveled how the proprietors and editor managed to give Salisbury a paper more than worthy of a place the size Salisbury. Editor Julian's work on the paper was conspicuous for clever, level-headed editorials and approved newspaper-making generally. It is most gratifying to us that he has been bagged along with the paper which he has already made so excellent. Then there are those experienced newspaper men, Varner Hammer, and the versatile Bost to make the team complete in its strength. The aggregation of talent and experience which has gotten together in this deal will emphasize the Rev. Jasper's contention that "the Sun do move." It is quite fitting that THE STAR should wish the other luminary at Salisbury a fixed place in the firmament.

—— Several months ago it was given out that Al G. Field had purchased the Forepaugh and Sells Bros. circus. That $30,000 robbery story looks like some of Field's work.—Norfolk Landmark.

—— Estimates recently prepared in the Bureau of Navigation show that when all the ships now building have been commissioned the navy will need for the manning of all its vessels about 2,087 officers and 63,368 men. This is more than twice as many men as the law provides for to-day. It is an illustration of the uneven way in which Congress has been building up the navy in the past.—Army and Navy Journal.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. ROYAL TONIC.

BEATS ANYTHING WE EVER SOLD AS A STRENGTH CREATOR AND BODY-BUILDER.

Druggist Bellamy Enthusiastic Over This Delicious Cod Liver Oil Tonic Which Contains No Oil.

"We sell many tonics," said Mr. Bellamy, our well known druggist. "We have demands for many so-called strength creators.

We handle all kinds of remedies that claim to be invigorators. We do this because we are druggists, and it is our business to supply the public with that which they want.

"When our advice is asked, however, as to a tonic and rebuilder, strength creator and an appetite producer, we invariably recommend Vinol. We do this because we know all about Vinol. We know all that it contains, and will tell you it is not a secret patent medicine. We have sold enormous quantities of it, and we have had every opportunity offered us to watch the results that have been accomplished by the use of this wonderful reconstructor.

"If you have not yet had occasion to use such a tonic we would like to have you call on us and learn why we are so enthusiastic about this scientific remedy.

"Vinol contains all the curative principles in a highly concentrated form that are found in cod liver oil. It does not contain, however, any of the obnoxious, digestion destroying grease that always proved to be such a drawback to what otherwise would have been a most valuable remedy. We wish you would remember Vinol, and bear in mind that as a blood enricher and flesh creator for old and young and as a wonderful aid to digestion we know of nothing that will compare with it.

"Such is our faith in Vinol that we will gladly refund to any one who is not satified the price they have paid us for it." Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

REACHING THE SPOT.

It Can Be Done, So Scores of Wilmington Citizens Say.

To cure an aching back,
The pains of rheumatism,
The tired-out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.
In most cases 'tis the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front street and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and side which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

She: They say that the best husbands are always thoughtful in little things. Are you that way, Mr. Smith?" Smith: No. I don't have to be; my wife always calls my attention to them before I have a chance to think.—Detroit Free Press.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, November 25.—The cotton market showed further activity, the feature being the active liquidation following the third instalment of the ginners' report and the no less active covering of shorts at the decline; the market finally showing a moderate net loss for the day. The opening was weak at a decline of eight to eleven points in response to lower cables than expected, while near by longs were also discouraged by talk of heavy tenders on December contracts and reports that a steamer has been chartered to carry two full cargoes of cotton from New Orleans to New York. Following the call prices worked down to a net loss of about thirteen points on continued liquidation and some selling for short account. Liverpool continued easy after the local opening with private cables accounting for the decline by increased crop estimates. Toward mid-day, prices worked up to a little over the opening figures. The installment of the ginners' report, however, proved more bearish than had been expected and was followed by a burst of liquidation that soon had the market down to a net loss of fourteen to sixteen points. Big short lines were covered on the decline and during the later trading the market ruled steady. The close was steady at a net decline of eight to ten points. Sales were estimated at 500,000 bales.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Cotton—The market was quiet at 9.70c; net receipts — bales; gross receipts — bales; stock — bales.

Newbro's Herpicide

The original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ"—An exquisite hair dressing.

THE LADIES OBJECT to a gummy and sticky hair dressing or one that is full of sedimentary chemicals intended to dye the hair. The marked preference for a clear and dainty preparation, particularly one that overcomes excessive oiliness and leaves the hair light and fluffy, is reflected in the enormous sale of Newbro's Herpicide. Discriminating ladies become enthusiastic over its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY must have pretty hair. The features may be quite plain or even homely, yet if the head is crowned with an abundance of beautiful hair, attractiveness will not be lacking. The Poet says: "Fair tresses man's imperial race ensnare." Herpicide gives the hair a charming distinctiveness that is characteristic of no other hair dressing.

DISEASED HAIR A MISFORTUNE. Unsightly or diseased hair is a misfortune in more ways than one. There is the actual injury to the hair follicles, and the consequent loss or thinning of the hair; this may cause diseases that sometimes follow a removal or thinning of nature's protection to the head. A diseased condition of the hair effects a woman's disposition to a marked degree. If the hair is dull, brittle and lifeless, owing to the presence of a microbe growth, the effect is to dampen one's spirits and cause a loss of interest in personal appearance. The use of Newbro's Herpicide overcomes the ravages of the dandruff microbe, after which the natural beauty and abundance of the hair will return as nature intended. Almost marvelous results follow the use of Herpicide. Gentlemen will find Newbro's Herpicide in use at all important barber shops.

A Healthy Hair.

STOPS ITCHING OF THE SCALP INSTANTLY.

Recommends It to Friends.

"I wish to say that I have used Herpicide and think it is very good. Have recommended it to quite a number of my lady and gentleman friends."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— In the United States court at Statesville, the case of W. T. Wilfong, administrator of Geo. W. Duncan vs. Southern Railway, instituted in the Superior Court in 1899 and removed to the United States District Court, has been dismissed by Judge Boyd. The amount sued for was $15,000.

— The corner-stone of the First Colored Baptist church was laid at Raleigh on Thursday afternoon in the presence of the large congregation and a number of other spectators. The church is half completed and will be quite an imposing structure, standing at the south corner of the capitol square.

— The Associated Charities did a great work at Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day afternoon serving 350 families, each receiving well filled baskets, special attention being given the sick. At the Soldiers' Home 99 inmates sat down to a bountiful dinner, with barbecue as a feature. They were a happy lot. Beside each plate was a good cigar.

— Fayetteville Observer, Nov. 23: The town of Dunn was very much alarmed yesterday over an accident at Mr. Wm. Altman's. His niece, Miss Ada, from Perwick's Cross Roads, was visiting at his house and assisting in renovating a room, when they came across a pistol, and in moving the pistol she accidentally shot and killed herself. She was 14 years of age and it seems no one can really tell how the affair occurred, as only a little girl was in the room with her.

— Fayetteville Observer, Nov. 23: At noon to-day the Cumberland Mill, formerly known as the Beaver Creek factory, situated at Cumberland, seven miles from Fayetteville, was sold at auction rnd was bought by Mr. S. H. MacRae for $10,000, subject to a mortgage of $20,000, and will be operated by Mr. J. Frederick Houston, of Philadelphia. This, we know, is joyful news to the People of Cumberland Mills, and to very many of us here in Fayetteville who know Mr. Houston, for those who have come in contact with this splendid gentleman hold him in the highest esteem, both on account of his personality and his business ability for fair dealing with those in his employ. It is also good to know that Mr. Houston will spend most of his time here, and that with him will be his charming wife.

— A dispatch from Raleigh on Thursday says: At the Academy of Music this evening the third intercollegiate debate between Richmond and Wake Forest Colleges was held. The building was packed, nearly all the Wake students having come on a special train and nearly 300 young women from the Baptist University here being on hand to cheer for them. Thomas B. Womack presided and the judges of debate were James B. Sheppard, Platt D. Walker and Fred A. Woodard. The query was, "Resolved, That advanced nations should control, for the world's benefit, the territory occupied by backward races." Richmond College made the affirmative side, its speakers being B. M. Simmons and F. G. Pollard. Wake Forest took the negative, its orators being Jos. Patton and A. H. Olive. It was evident to everybody, that the representatives of Wake Forrest were by far the best speakers, and even before the debate was concluded it was clear that Wake Forest would win, as the judges decided.

— Charlotte Observer: Nothing, we believe, has been said by our Northern friends, since the election, with more frequency, by way of accounting for the overwhelming result, than that the sectionalism of the South was largely responsible for it. That explanation will scarcely stand scrutiny. Formerly Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia were reckoned as Southern States and were Democratic States, but all have drifted to the Republicans. At the time of the presidential election in 1896 North Carolina was in the hands of a combination which was distinctly anti-Democratic, and yet the Northern States went almost as solidly Republican that year as they did this. Now Missouri, another Southern State, has joined the Republican procession, along with Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia, which joined years ago, and we shall see next time what good that does. We despise the talk about sectionalism in a country which we have been told thousands of times had become re-united, and we never first raise the issue; but, when it is raised on the other side of the line, it proves too much on our friends of the North, as is evidenced by the above citation of facts. However, if any other Southern State wishes to try on the suggestion that has been offered, it has our permission to do it, but North Carolina has tried it once and has had enough.

— "The landslide sufferers haven't asked anybody for a contribution yet."—Wilmington (N. C.) Star, Dem. Oh, yes they have; they did their asking before the landslide occurred.—Norfolk Landmark.

— The Judge—You called him a liar did you? How did he take it? The Colonel—He agreeably su'prised me, suh, by acting like a perfect gentleman. He knocked me down, suh.—Chicago Tribune.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

WINE OF CARDUI

IN THE PARLOR AND IN THE KITCHEN

Wine of Cardui is the medicine for every woman.

Wine of Cardui builds up a woman's strength and makes her fit for any duty. If she is ailing it puts her in the best health. If she is sick it cures her of such troubles as irregular periods, bearing down pains and all the weaknesses of womanhood.

But you do not have to be sick to take Wine of Cardui. This natural female tonic is beneficial at any time. Periodical use of Wine of Cardui is necessary for most women who are burdened with social duties, women who have the care of young children and have to do their own work. They find this great tonic a grateful support at times when they are tired, nervous and worn out.

Will You Give Wine of Cardui a Trial?

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use.

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

Accept no substitute—there is none.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WINTER'S APPROACH

A day of sunshine now and then, but these frosty mornings admonish us that sable Winter is almost here. That suggests the comforts and satisfaction of one of our modern heaters. We have them this year of every shape and kind—just the one to suit. Or, perhaps, it's a cooking stove or range. We have those too, And the point we are making for them all is that they furnish an even maximum of heat with the greatest economy of fuel.

We are yours just now for stoves and ranges, but all the time for hardware and agricultural implements. Let us serve you.

SATURDAY MORNING. NOV. 26.

THE CENSUS BUREAU REPORT

On Quantity of Cotton Ginned to November 14th—The Total Number of Bales 8,921,125.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Census Bureau to-day issued a preliminary report on the quantity of cotton ginned to November 14th, 1904, in 681 counties, from which reports have been received to this date. It shows 26,817 active ginneries against 26,710 for the same period and the same counties in 1903, and a total for the same period in the same counties in 1904 of 8,931,125 running bales, against 6,414,658 in 1903.

The last named figures include 224,726 round bales for 1904 and 470,630 for 1903. The entire number of counties from which ginning was reported last season was 813. When all of the agents shall have reported for the present crop there will be published a summary distributing by States the total quantity ginned during the season prior to November 14th.

The entire number of active ginneries reported prior to November 14, 1903, was 29,506, but the entire cotton ginned was 7,070,637 running bales. By States the reports for the 681 counties, so far reported for the present season prior to November 14, are as follows:

Alabama, 56 counties, 3,318 active ginneries, 923,979 running bales; Arkansas, 66 counties, 2,266 ginneries, 521,792 bales; Florida, 15 counties, 214 ginneries, 41,612 bales; Georgia, 119 counties, 4,571 ginneries, 1,433,907 bales; Indian Territory, 15 counties, 330 ginneries, 207,485 bales; Kentucky, one county, three ginneries, 850 bales; Louisiana, 39 counties, 1,560 ginneries, 406,974 bales; Mississippi, 85 counties, 3,733 ginneries, 973,831 bales; Missouri, seven counties, 56 ginneries, 26,985 bales; North Carolina, 63 counties, 2,787 ginneries, 508,782 bales; Oklahoma, 15 counties, 247 ginneries, 190,789 bales; South Carolina, 39 counties, 3,144 ginneries, 921,876 bales; Tennessee, 34 counties, 650 ginneries, 184,063 bales; Texas, 138 counties, 3,856 ginneries, 2,478,561 bales; Virginia, six counties, 83 ginneries, 8,649 bales.

MISSING BOY RETURNED.

Stephen Putney, Reported to Have Been Kidnapped at St. Louis Fair.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST LOUIS, NOV. 25.—Stephen Putney, Jr., the son of a wealthy Richmond, Va., shoe manufacturer, who disappeared nine days ago while visiting the Fine Arts building at the world's fair returned to day to the Hamilton Hotel, where his brother Langhorne Putney is stopping in company of a friend of the family who had been sent to Kansas City to get the boy. Young Putney for whom the police and his relatives have been searching since the day after his disappearance, was in Kansas City all the time, stopping at 623 Walnut street, it is stated. His family refused to discuss Stephen's return, saying that his explanation of his absence was satisfactory and that they desired no more publicity of the affair. Young Putney, when he so suddenly disappeared, had with him jewels valued at more than $1,000, but had less than $100 in money. The story that young Putney was kidnapped is discredited by the police.

THE WORLD'S COTTON.

Total Visible Supply as Shown by Secretary Hester's Statement.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's supply of cotton, issued to-day, shows the total visible to be 3,874,108 bales, against 2,658,182 last week and 3,342,996 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 3,326,078, against 3,129182 last week and 2,847,996 last year; and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 548,000 bales, against 528,000 last week and 495,000 last year. Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,802,000 bales, against 1,687,000 last year; in Egypt, 149,000, against 150,000 last year; in India, 187,000, against 130,000 last year, and in the United States, 1,646,000, against 1,386,000 last year.

ORDERS TO JAPS AT PORT ARTHUR.

To Renew the Attack and to Take the Main Fortifications at Any Cost.

ARE SHELLING THE FORTS.

If These Are Taken the Capture of Port Arthur Seems Assured—Situation Near Mukden Unchanged—Russian Attacks Repulsed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 25.—The Associated Press learns on excellent authority that the Japanese army has been ordered to renew its attack on Port Arthur and to take the main fortifications at any cost.

TOKIO, NOV. 25.—It is reported that the Japanese saps directed against Rihlung mountain, Sungshu mountain and East Kekwan mountain, have reached the base of the center ditches. The defensive works outside the parapets of Rihlun mountain and Sungshu mountain have been captured, leaving the Russians in possession of the parapets only. The Japanese guns are shelling the parapets and inflicting heavy damage. The occupation of the forts is expected shortly. If the forts are taken the capture of Port Arthur proper seems assured within a short time.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE JAPANESE ARMY BEFORE PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 23, via Fusan 25.—The possession of the Rihlun and Kekwan forts enables the Japanese to place a sufficient force on the north front of the eastern ridge of forts to execute a sweeping movement against the battery positions on the crest of the western ridge of forts and the 203 metre hill which as yet they have not captured.

Situation Near Mukden.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, GEN. OKU'S ARMY, Nov. 23, 4 P. M., via Fusan, Nov. 25.—The Russians are showing some activity in front of Gen. Oku's army. At dawn to-day detachments attacked on two places the left and centre divisions. The center repulsed the attack immediately and the left did also after a hard fight. As a result of the repulse the Japanese occupied Poutuen. The Russians left many dead on the field.

GEN. KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS, Nov. 24, via Fusan, Nov. 25.—The reports circulated during the past week and telegraphed abroad to the effect that Gen. Kuropatkin in making a general advance had pushed back the Japanese left a distance of three miles, are wholly unfounded.

The situation remains entirely unchanged during the last month., except that both armies have doubtless strengthened their defences and accumulated supplies in that time.

The Russians continue their reconnoissances in front of the Japanese left, but there has been no general engagement or change in the Japanese entrenched positions.

Attacks by Russians.

TOKIO, Nov. 25.—The Manchurian headquarters telegraphed yesterday as follows:

"From 1 o'clock at night (November 23) the enemy's infantry made a series of attacks against outposts at Lamutun (Lamuling), but retreated northward before our fire. Simultaneously the enemy's artillery, bombarded the neighborhood of the Shake railroad bridge, firing three rounds with no damage to us."

The Japanese continue to ignore the daily shelling which takes place in the front of the central army, and in many places the whole line of trenches are so close that the Japanese can draw fire at any time by displaying caps on sticks. A few casualties result daily from rifle fire.

A BANK BURGLAR HANGED.

Execution of Frank Duncan for the Murder of a Policeman in Birmingham, Ala.—His Criminal Record.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 25.—Frank Duncan, who is said to be one of the most noted safe-blowers in the country, was hanged here to-day for the murder of Policeman Kirkley, in March, 1900. The drop fell shortly before noon. Duncan's neck was broken and he was pronounced dead twelve minutes afterward. He marched to the scaffold with a firm step. He made a long speech to the hundred present, reasserting his innocence.

Duncan made a sarcastic fling at the police, declaring that he had been persecuted. The crime he committed occurred on March 29th, 1900, when after an assault on the safe of the Standard Oil Company, Policemen Adams and Kirkley arrested two men for the crime. On the way to jail, the suspects broke away from the officers, firing on them, killing Kirkley and fatally wounded Adams. Some days later two men were arrested at Anniston and three at Chattanooga. Among them were Frank Miller and Frank Duncan, both of whom were identified by Adams before he died. Both were tried for the murder of Adams, Miller getting a death sentence and Duncan a life sentence. Miller was hanged in June, 1901. Duncan later was given a death sentence for the murder of Kirkley, but escaped from jail. He was recaptured in Florida a few weeks ago, where he had just robbed a bank. He was brought back here and resentenced to death.

VESSELS ABANDONED.

American Barquentine Elmiranda and Unknown Four-Masted Schooner.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MAYPORT, FLA., Nov. 25.—Captain Fossett, of the schooner John W. Dams, from New York, reports that in latitude 30.40, longitude 77.20, he sighted the American barkentine Elmiranda, waterlogged, deserted, and lumber floating around her. He boarded the barkentine and not deeming her worth attempting to save, set fire to the vessel, as she was a dangerous menace to navigation. The Elmiranda sailed from Jacksonville, November 4, for Trinidad. Her captain and crew were taken off by the British steamer Horsa, and landed at Hamilton, Bermuda, November 17. Her cargo consisted of 371,000 feet of lumber.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Nov. 25.—Captain Holden, of the schooner Florence Leland, reports that on November 17, in latitude 36.35 feet, longitude 71.22, he sighted a four masted schooner apparently full of water and with no signs of life aboard. He could not read the name, being too far to windward.

ROOSEVELT'S TRIP TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Every Station Along the Way Thronged With People—Short Talks Made from Rear Platform of Special.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 25.—After traversing the States of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana, President Roosevelt is speeding across the State of Illinois to-night enroute to St Louis, where for two days he and his party will be the guests of the officials of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The President's trip thus far has been productive of no notable incidents. The feature of the journey from Washington to Indianapolis was the enthusiasm with which the President was received. Since daylight today every station through which the special train has passed was thronged with people anxious even to catch a glimpse of the President. Stops were made only at division terminals and at some of them hundreds of people had assembled to greet Mr. Roosevelt and to show kindly feeling for him.

The most notable demonstration of the day was given the President at Pittsburg. The station where the train stopped for a few minutes was thronged, but only a fractional part of the crowd was permitted on the platform near the train. To them the President expressed his pleasure at the opportunity afforded him to see them and added: "You may depend upon it I will do all that in me lies to show you that you made no mistake on November 8th."

Throughout the run of the train through the city President Roosevelt remained on the rear platform of his car, bowing and waiving his hat to the crowds of people assembled at every vantage point along the railroad track.

The windows of factories and shops along the line were filled with faces of eager workmen who cheered and waved hats and hands as the train swept by.

A live coon was presented to the President at Dennison, where the special train stopped for a few minutes. After the President had greeted the people and addressed them practically as he had spoke at Pittsburg, and as the train was pulling out of the station, a man swung the coon over the railing of the car platform and shouted: "Take him, he will give you good luck."

When the President laughed and shook his head deprecatingly the man again shouted: "You must take him. I'm a life-long Democrat and I wish you good luck."

Attached to the chain around the little animal's neck was a card bearing the inscription: "Compliments of Tuscarawas county, Ohio. Plurality for Roosevelt, 2,224; for Bryan in 1900, 613. Presented by O. J. Strope, Denison, Ohio."

The coon will be taken to Washington and placed in the national zoological park.

The President briefly addressed an enthusiastic crowd in the station at Richmond, Ind. Speaking of the election he said: "I am the President of all the country, of all Americans, of whatever party, and so far as strength is given me, I shall try to be a good and decent President, for the next four years."

As the train drew into the station at Indianapolis tremendous applause greeted President Roosevelt who stood upon the observation platform bowing to the people who scrambled eagerly for space close to the rear of the train.

When the applause had subsided the President said, among other things:

"I have always thought a great deal of Indiana and I now have reason to think more of her than ever. I thank you all for coming out here to see me and I assure you that I appreciate it."

"What's the matter with Ohio?" yelled some one in the crowd.

"Not a thing," answered President Roosevelt, "and I want to tell you that there are a lot of other good ones."

Leaning over the rail, the President said good naturedly:

—"What's the matter with Missouri?" A deafening cheer greeted the sally.

After exchanging a few pleasantries with the people and bidding them good night, the President retired.

J. M. SMITH ARRESTED.

Nan Patterson's Brother-in-law, Said to Have Purchased the Fatal Pistol.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The World will say to-morrow:

J. Morgan Smith, brother-in-law of Nan Patterson, and the man who is said to have purchased the revolver with which Caesar Young, the bookmaker, was killed, was arrested yesterday in West Nyack, N. Y., by Detective Sergeant Judge, of the central office staff. Smith is now believed to be locked up in a cell at police headquarters.

Smith is a witness for whom the district attorney and the police have been hunting ever since the criminal authorities decided to prosecute Nan Patterson on a charge of having murdered Caesar Young. Smith was found boarding under a fictitious name with a private family.

BANK BURGLARS

Blew Up Building and Secured $3,000 in Cash at La Plata, Md.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BALTIMORE, MD, November 24.—A special to the Baltimore American from La Plata, Charles county, Md., says that a number of men blew up and practically destroyed the building of the Southern Maryland Savings Bank early this morning. They secured three thousand dollars in cash. Nitro-glycerine is supposed to have been the explosive used. The robbers, after securing the money, made their escape, but cut the telegraph and telephone wires before leaving the vicinity.

WARM WIRELETS.

News has reached Washington of the signing of a treaty between Peru and Brazil looking to the peaceful settlement of the boundary disputes between the two nations and the adjustment of claims arising therefrom.

Thousands of enthusiastic football rooters arrived in Philadelphia yesterday to attend the annual struggle on the gridiron between the West Point and Annapolis cadets at Franklin field to-day.

The two masted schooner Frank W. McCullough, Captain Brink, from a North Carolina port for New York, carrying a crew of six men, was driven ashore in the inlet at Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday afternoon. It is likely the schooner will be floated on the next high tide.

A meeting of the representatives of the Lancashire, Eng., cotton trade will be called shortly to prepare a reply to the invitation to visit the Southern States of America. At first the feeling was against the acceptance of the invitation because it emenated from growers rather than manufacturers; now, however, the feeling is growing in favor of acceptance.

BLOODY TRAGEDY AT DURHAM, N. C.

J. S. Murray Began Shooting at His Nephews and Was Himself Shot and Killed.

WERE RIVALS IN BUSINESS.

The Shooting Took Place in Front of the Dead Man's Store—W. R. Murray Arrested—Many Lawyers Retained on Each Side.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 25.—As a result of business rivalry W. R. Murray this morning shot and killed his uncle, J. S. Murray, at Durham, N. C. The shooting took place in front of the store of the dead man, on Main street in the business section of the city.

Both men had been running music stores and were well known business men. W. R. Murray who did the shooting is a brother-in-law of I. E. Emerson, of Baltimore, Md., the well known chemist.

Early this morning, J. S. Murray was preparing to ship a piano and he accused a salesman of W. R. Murray of watching and prying into his business for the purpose of trying to thwart the trade. W. R. Murray heard that his salesman had been so accused and, accompanied by his son, Earle Murray, he went to the store of his uncle which is about half a block from his own place of business. At the door he was met by J. S. Murray.

A short, bitter quarrel followed and J. S. Murray pulled his revolver and began shooting at W. R. and Earle Murray, the three bullets fired all taking effect in Earle, in the hand, arm and thigh. W. R. Murray, a powerful man, closed in on his assailant, and taking the revolver from him shot him, the bullet entering just to the right of the breast and ranging upward and to the left, severing an artery.

The wounded man fell and was taken into his store, where he expired within a few minutes without having spoken.

W. R. Murray was arrested and will remain in custody until 10 o'clock tomorrow, when the coroner's inquest will be held.

Nearly every lawyer in Durham has been retained on one side or the other and several out of town lawyers have been called in. The affair has caused a sensation in Durham.

TROLLEY CAR SMASHED.

Sixteen People Injured, Two of Them Probably Fatally.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 25.—A passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad between this city and Pittsburg crashed into a trolley car, at Bedford, O., to-day. The trolley car was well filled with passengers and two of them are probably fatally hurt. Fourteen passengers are less seriously injured. The passenger train was running at a speed of 50 miles an hour. It struck the trolley car almost in the centre and carried a portion of it a quarter of a mile.

RECEPTION AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Basket Ball, Gymnastics, Music, Refreshments, Etc., Enjoyed Last Night.

The reception last night at the Y. M. C. A. by the membership teams of the Association was largely attended and much enjoyed by every one present. The opening was a basket ball game and other athletic exercises in the gymnasium. The basket ball team captained by Dr. C. T. Harper won from Capt. J. J. Loughlin's team by a score of 10 to 8. An exhibition of high jumping was given by Messrs. F. S. DuPre, A. C. Boney, Joe Loughlin and T. L. Cromartie, each of whom cleared 6¼ feet. The work on the rings by Mr. Alfred Klesse was of professional order and was greatly enjoyed.

The Athletic exercises over, the guests were invited to the parlors of the Association where music and refreshments were enjoyed. The musical numbers were by the Association Male Quartette and were very pretty. Major Wm. F. Robertson made a brief address, very happy in its conception and delivered in the speaker's characteristic pleasing manner.

Elmer Hinnant's Death.

Sampson Democrat: "On last Saturday afternoon Mr. J. E. Hinnant was found dead near his home at Boykin's Bridge. He had gone to a near-by store, and as he had not returned at a late hour, Mrs. Hinnant and a man who worked with them went in search of him and found him in a ditch dead. He had fallen face downward and drowned. It is believed that he had an attack of epilepsy when he fell in the ditch, as he had suffered with this for some time before. The remains, accompanied by his father-in-law, Capt. Newsome, Mrs. Hinnant and her sister, Mrs. Miller, of Wilmington, A. J. Alderman, and other neighbors, whose names we failed to learn, were taken to Black Creek last Monday for interment. Deceased was a man of good intellect, upright character, had made many friends here, and was liked and held in high esteem by all. The bereaved have our deepest sympathy."

WILLINGHAM-PESCHAU WEDDING.

Prominent Young Wilmington Attorney Took Fair Georgia Bride.

Marietta (Ga.) correspondence of the Atlanta Constitution:

The marriage of Miss Grayson Willingham, of this city, and Mr. George Ludwig Peschau, of North Carolina, was solemnized this evening at the Episcopal church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. T. A. Pise, rector of St. James' Episcopal church. Mrs. Henry G. Cole presided at the organ. The maid of honor, Miss Rosa Willingham, the sister of the bride, preceded the bride, who entered with her father, Mr. Charles Berrie Willingham, and met the groom with his best man, Mr. John Peschau, at the chancel.

The attendants were Misses Marie Phinizy, of Augusta; Mabel Oglesby, Quitman, Ga.; Annie Jones, of Dalton, and Miss Eileen Gober, of Marietta, and Messrs. Henry Peschau, H. M. Chase, J. O. Carr, of Wilmington; N. C. and Harold Willingham, of Marietta.

The ushers were Messrs. John Glenn and J. R. Nutting, of Atlanta; William Crow, of Wilmington, N. C., and C. B. Willingham, Jr., of Marietta.

The bridal party was entertained after the ceremony at the home of the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Peschau left for St. Louis and other cities.
